By providing this information you, on behalf of the Partner, expressly consent for MagnaPass, where required, to issue tax compliant invoices on behalf of the business for services provided by your business through the MagnaPass platform. By using MagnaPass, you understand and accept that by providing a VAT number, MagnaPass will automatically treat the business as a VAT registered business. MagnaPass accepts no liability for incorrect information provided by you, or anyone acting on behalf of the Partner, including but not limited to information in relation to VAT identification numbers and whether or not a small business regime applies.

Receiving Payments Through MagnaPass: All Partner accounts using MagnaPass adhere to, agree with and accept the charges per transaction set by MagnaPass. 10. PARTNER SUBSCRIPTION AND MAGNAPASS PREMIUM BILLING

Please note, this clause is for Partner subscribers and MagnaPass Premium members, not for users accessing MagnaPass for free.

Recurring Billing: By starting your Partner subscription or MagnaPass subscription, you authorise us to charge you a monthly subscription fee at the then current rate which is agreed upon signing up to the given subscription. Increases in the current rate will be notified to you by e-mail or other notice (such as when you log into your account).

For example, if you signed up on March 31st, your next auto-renew date will be May 1st, and payment will be taken using your Payment Method on (or as soon as practically possible) after that date. All membership/subscription auto-renews will continue to take place on the new auto-renew date (i.e., in this example, the 1st of each month). For example, if your next Renewal Date is October 30th, you need to cancel by October 23rd in order to avoid being charged for the next membership cycle. Note that if you do terminate your membership/subscription, there is no reactivation fee if you want to return to MagnaPass or as a Business in future months. If you have purchased a membership/subscription under a non-rolling contract (i.e. a 6-month contract), you will be liable for the remaining amount owed on the contract if you cancel after any gracing period offered by MagnaPass.
